ADVISERS

Shortly following the student application deadline, your adviser will be contacted automatically to answer a list of evaluative questions about your proposal. It is expected that you will have already discussed your research plans and your intention to apply for funding. If, for any reason, you do not have a thesis adviser, please enter your JP adviser, or the faculty member most familiar with your research. Failure to submit the appropriate adviser will significantly delay review of your application.

Special Restrictions

Students applying to ODOC are required to apply for all departmental and programmatic funds for which they are eligible. Dean of the College funds will not be assigned until all other awards have been made. Please be aware that some funds are dedicated to particular majors and research topics; you are expected to make informed decisions regarding the opportunities to which you apply through SAFE. Students are expected to submit only one active application per project; you may apply for funding from multiple funders via the same single application. Students with duplicate applications will not be considered.

Post Project Instructions

If, for whatever reason, you do not use all of your award for thesis research, or, if the total amount you have received from all funding sources exceeds your budget, you will be expected to return the balance at the time of post-project requirement submission: prior to the semester following your award, via a check or money order made out to Princeton University and delivered to Pascale Poussart in 412 West College.

ANTICIPATED EXPENSES

Please provide a working budget for all of your anticipated expenses. We expect these costs to be moderate; you are responsible for researching competitive pricing in order to maintain reasonable costs. The budget you are providing should be detailed and specific.

If the funding office(s) to which you are applying has specific expense/budget guidelines, they will be listed below.
